PLEASE RETAIN THIS SECTION FOR YOUR INFORMATION

There will be a deviation from the usual self-drive visit format for this event with only one group on the day. Confirmation, directions and further information will be sent out by Wednesday 1st June 2022. To reserve places, please complete and return the form on the next page.

9.30am/9.45am – Meet at the Minack Theatre, Porthcurno, Penzance TR19 6JU

This event will commence at 10am. Enjoy a guided tour with Jeff Rowe and Claire Batten, who have won multiple medals at RHS Chelsea for their specialist exotics, and discover what makes these sub-tropical gardens unique. Learn about the challenges of gardening on a cliff-edge and the species that flourish in unusual climatic conditions, benefitting from the warmth of the underlying Cornish granite yet being treated harshly by the strong salt winds off the Atlantic.

After the tour, there will be tea and coffee served in the café and then some spare time to explore the local area before lunch.

1pm – Meet at Boscrowan, Heamoor, Penzance TR20 8UJ

In complete contrast, we then head to Boscrowan, in a sheltered valley near Penzance, for a two-course lunch, which will be served in the garden or indoors (weather depending!). The gardens here have been established over the last 20 years with the endeavour of providing year-round colour and interest.

Wander around the herbaceous borders, relax by the wildlife pond or speed up and take a spin in the Victorian revolving summerhouse!

There is also a vegetable garden and flower cutting area to provide for the holiday cottages, and a greenhouse for growing tomatoes and plant propagation. Please contribute your excess plants to the bring-and-buy plant stall, the proceeds from which go to local charity, The Gardeners' House, Penzance (www.thegardenershouse.org)

Dogs on short leads at both locations. Limited disabled access to Minack Theatre Gardens due to the nature of the location but good disabled access at Boscrowan.

Cost, including refreshments at the Minack Theatre and a two-course lunch.

CGS Members £37 Non CGS Members £42
