Worcestershire Gardens, The RHS Malvern Spring Flower Festival and Ashwood Nurseries

Tuesday 7th to Saturday 11th May 2019

Day 1: Tuesday 7th May

We will stop en route for refreshment at Exeter Services and lunch at Webbs of Wychbold (not included in the price) before visiting The Tulip Festival at Morton Hall. In addition to intricate planting schemes in the formal borders, swathes of naturalised bulbs may be enjoyed in the glorious spring meadows and woodland gardens.

Day 2: Wednesday 8th May

Today, we will visit Ashwood Nurseries, which will include an escorted tour round the wonderful three-acre John's Garden, created by nursery owner and RHS Chelsea medallist, John Massey. The large plant sales area contains greenhouses, a garden shop and a gift shop. You will be able to purchase your own refreshments here.

Day 3: Thursday 9th May

We will spend today visiting three gardens starting with White Cottage Garden and Nursery and its snake's head fritillary meadow. We continue to Spetchley Park Gardens with stunning flowering shrubs and spring bulbs, where Edward Elgar was inspired to write one of his great compositions. We finish at Perrycroft Arts and Crafts Garden designed by Charles Voysey, set on the steep side of the Malvern Hills with spectacular views of the Black Mountains. Tea will be provided here.

Day 4: Friday 10th May

Today we will enjoy RHS Gold-medal-winning show gardens, 30 top quality nurseries, specialist plant exhibitors as well as the beautiful Floral Marquee, The Great Pavilion of Art and Flowers, the Malvern Shopping Arcade and the Country Living Pavilion at The RHS Malvern Spring Flower Festival.

Day 5: Saturday 11th May

After checking out of our hotel, we shall visit Miserden Garden, a hidden gem in the heart of the Cotswolds, which is one of the top ten most romantic gardens in the world. We will have lunch here before we continue home.

You will purchase your own refreshments unless otherwise stated above.
