

Sunday 19 April
Prayers for the coming week

Truro
sacred space, common ground

In this time of world turbulence and leadership transition, we are invited to pray for all those aspects of our common life that are affected by change.

For an end to violence and a renewed desire for peaceful cohabitation of God's creation. For the bending of stubborn wills and the softening of hardened hearts.

For Bishop David as he leads us in worship and in fellowship and as he works to secure the appointment of an Interim Dean.

For Dean Simon as he prepares for his consecration on 30th April at York Minster, and for his settling amongst the people of the Diocese of Liverpool.

For the staff and volunteers of the cathedral as they work to sustain the pattern of our daily life, and enable this place to fulfil its calling as a house of welcome for one and all, a place where God might be encountered in this sacred space.

For the members of the Chapter as they seek to support the staff and volunteers and prepare for the recruitment of a substantive Dean.

For James Treasure as he prepares for his consecration as Bishop of St Germans at St Paul's cathedral on 1st of May, and for Esther and their family as they prepare for their ministry in Cornwall.

Give to your Church, O God, a bold vision and a daring charity, a refreshed wisdom and courteous understanding, that the eternal message of your Son may be acclaimed as the good news of our age; through him who makes all things new, even Jesus Christ our Lord.
