Collect: Lord, you have taught us that all our doings without love are nothing worth: send your Holy Spirit and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of love, the true bond of peace and of all virtues, without which whoever lives is counted dead before you. Grant this for your only Son Jesus Christ's sake, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

First Reading – Exodus 19.2 -8a

They had journeyed from Rephidim, entered the wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness; Israel camped there in front of the mountain. Then Moses went up to God; the Lord called to him from the mountain, saying, 'Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the Israelites: You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself. Now therefore, if you obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession out of all the peoples. Indeed, the whole earth is mine, but you shall be for me a priestly kingdom and a holy nation. These are the words that you shall speak to the Israelites.'

So Moses came, summoned the elders of the people, and set before them all these words that the Lord had commanded him. The people all answered as one: 'Everything that the Lord has spoken we will do.' Moses reported the words of the people to the Lord.

Psalm 100

Response

Andrew Moore

cf. v. 1 O be joy-ful in the Lord, O be joy-ful, all the earth.

O be joyful in the Lord, all the earth;
Serve the Lord with gladness
And come before his presence with a song.

Know that the Lord is God;
It is he that has made us and we are his;
We are his people and the sheep of his pasture.

Enter his gates with thanksgiving
And his courts with praise;
Give thanks to him and bless his name.

For the Lord is gracious;
His steadfast love is everlasting,
and his faithfulness endures from generation to generation.

Second Reading – Romans 5.1-8

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us. For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.

Gospel reading - Matthew 9. 35 – 10.8 (9-23)

Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness. When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest'.

Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness. These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him.

These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: 'Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, proclaim the good news, "The kingdom of heaven has come near." 'Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment. Take no gold, or silver, or copper in your belts, no bag for your journey, or two tunics, or sandals, or a staff; for labourers deserve their food. Whatever town or village you enter, find out who in it is worthy, and stay there until you leave. As you enter the house, greet it. If the house is worthy, let your peace return to you. If anyone will not welcome you or listen to your words, shake off the dust from your feet as you leave that house or town. Truly I tell you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah on the day of judgement than for that town.

'See, I am sending you out like sheep into the midst of wolves; so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves. Beware of them, for they will hand you over to councils and flog you in their synagogues; and you will be dragged before governors and kings because of me, as a testimony to them and the Gentiles. When they hand you over, do not worry about how you are to speak or what you are to say; for what you are to say will be given to you at that time; for it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you. Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child, and children will rise against parents and have them put to death; and you will be hated by all because of my name. But the one who endures to the end will be saved. When they persecute you in one town, flee to the next; for truly I tell you, you will not have gone through all the towns of Israel before the Son of Man comes.'

Post Communion Prayer

Loving Father,

We thank you for feeding us at the supper of your Son:
sustain us with your Spirit, that we may serve you here on earth until our joy is complete in heaven,
and we share in the eternal banquet
with Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

This Event is open to all

Parking

A hot topic of conversation has been the recent changes to car parking in the cathedral car park. We are grateful for the significant and constructive feedback that has been received. This will be collated over the coming weeks, and further information will be shared once that is complete to seek a solution which meets the needs of the cathedral and all who play a part in its life and ministry.

The Chapter House Revival

We're on course for the Chapter House to open this summer. The launch date is yet to be set as we await delivery of the new furnishings and equipment that will see the space transformed into a welcoming, comfortable and peaceful place to be. The Chapter House will offer a café space for 70, alongside a small shop area and exhibition displays. The work is still in progress with improvements currently being made to the lighting, décor and counter area. Repairs to the windows will be taking place soon. Recruitment for team leaders will have been completed by the end of next week. We're excited to welcome you again! If you would like to contribute towards the cost of this exciting and much-anticipated project, the easiest way to do so is by scanning the QR code below

Truro Cathedral Heritage Talks

You might not have heard about these!!! Over the past few months, many folk have been contacting Truro Cathedral about their family's connection with this building, its worship and music. It's really exciting that a group of volunteers are organising monthly history and heritage talks, as part of the build up to Truro Cathedral's 150th anniversary celebrations in 2030.

We are hoping for lots of interest and participation with the talks from people with family recollections of the cathedral. Please click the link to find out more, and feel free to share it with anyone else you know who might be interested. The talks will be ticketed and on a wide range of topics, with refreshments and convivial conversation too. Please pass this message to anyone who you may think might be interested.

Long table lunch

Thank you to all those who attended the Long Table lunch last Sunday. It was great to have lunch with employed and volunteer team members to celebrate the end of Volunteers' Week and to be joined by the Archdeacon. The next long table lunch will be held on Sunday 20th September, 12pm, all are welcome.

Volunteer Recruitment

We have various volunteers we are recruiting for so please do contact Susie if you or someone you know may be interested. Roles currently available include Hospitality & Retail Volunteer (to help with the Chapter House when it reopens), Finance Record Conversion Volunteer, Livestream Operator along with positions on the Health & Safety Committee, Finance Committee and Audit & Risk Committee. Email volunteering@trurocathedral.org.uk for more details or to apply.
