Collect

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity and in the power of the divine majesty to worship the Unity: keep us steadfast in this faith, that we may evermore be defended from all adversities; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

First Reading: Proverbs 8: 1-4, 22-31: Does not wisdom call, and does not understanding raise her voice? On the heights, beside the way, at the crossroads she takes her stand; beside the gates in front of the town, at the entrance of the portals she cries out: 'To you, O people, I call, and my cry is to all that live. The Lord created me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of long ago. Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth. When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water. Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth—when he had not yet made earth and fields, or the world's first bits of soil. When he established the heavens, I was there, when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep, when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth, then I was beside him, like a master worker; and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the human race.

Psalm 8

Rosalie Bonighton

Response

cf. v.2

A - bove the heav'ns your ma - jes - ty is praised.

O Lord our governor, how glorious is your name in all the world! Your majesty above the heavens is praised out of the mouth of babes at the breast. You have founded a stronghold against your foes, that you might still the enemy and the avenger.

Response

When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars that you have ordained, What are mortals, that you should be mindful of them; mere human beings, that you should seek them out?.

Response

You have made them little lower than the angels and crown them with glory and honour. You have given them dominion over the works of your hands and put all things under their feet. Response

All sheep and oxen, even the wild beasts of the field, The birds of the air, the fish of the sea and whatsoever moves in the paths of the sea. O Lord our governor, how glorious is your name in all the world! Response

Second reading: Romans 5: 1-5: Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

Gospel Reading: John 16: 12-15: 'I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

Post Communion Prayer

Almighty and eternal God, you have revealed yourself as Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and live and reign in the perfect unity of love: hold us firm in this faith, that we may know you in all your ways and evermore rejoice in your eternal glory, who are three Persons yet one God, now and for ever. Amen

The Christian Aid Week collections at the cathedral this year raised £344.45 (most of which was gift-aided). The Truro CA coffee morning raised an impressive £1,009. Many thanks to all who contributed to the collections, attended the coffee morning or donated online to support Christian Aid's work in Guatemala, South Sudan and twenty other countries around the world.

From Canon Sue... On the afternoon of the 13th July Dr Andrew Lumsden will be coming to conduct a Come and Sing Evensong event in Truro Cathedral, including Byrd responses, canticles by Brewer and Balfour Gardiner's Evening hymn. Rehearsal at 2.30, service at 4pm. All are welcome to join the large choir for this event, and teaching tracks will be provided in advance so that everyone can learn their parts at home in their own time. Please register your interest at suewallace@trurocathedral.org.uk so that we can ensure we have sufficient music for everyone.

New Readers – If anyone would like to read at the 10am Sunday Eucharists, please speak to Chris Rowe at the west end after the service.

Please take this away with you
