Collect: Almighty God

You have broken the tyranny of sin and have sent the Spirit of your Son in to our hearts whereby we call you Father: give us grace to dedicate our freedom to your service, that we and all creation may be brought to the glorious liberty of the children of God; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

First Reading – Jeremiah 20. 7-13

O Lord, you have enticed me, and I was enticed; you have overpowered me, and you have prevailed. I have become a laughing-stock all day long; everyone mocks me. For whenever I speak, I must cry out, I must shout, 'Violence and destruction!' For the word of the Lord has become for me a reproach and derision all day long. If I say, 'I will not mention him, or speak any more in his name', then within me there is something like a burning fire shut up in my bones; I am weary with holding it in, and I cannot. For I hear many whispering: 'Terror is all around! Denounce him!' Let us denounce him!

All my close friends are watching for me to stumble. 'Perhaps he can be enticed, and we can prevail against him, and take our revenge on him.'

But the Lord is with me like a dread warrior; therefore my persecutors will stumble, and they will not prevail. They will be really shamed, for they will not succeed. Their eternal dishonour will never be forgotten.

O Lord of hosts, you test the righteous, you see the heart and the mind; let me see your retribution upon them, for to you I have committed my cause.

Sing to the Lord; praise the Lord! For he has delivered the life of the needy from the hands of evildoers.

Psalm 69

Response

cf. v. 35

Richard Lloyd

The Lord lis-tens to the nee - dy and his own he does not des - pise.

I have become a stranger to my kindred, an alien to my mother's children. Zeal for your house has eaten me up; the scorn of those who scorn you has fallen upon me.

But as for me, I make my prayer to you, O Lord; at an acceptable time, O God. Answer me, O God, in the abundance of your mercy and with your sure salvation.

Answer me, Lord, for your loving-kindness is good; turn to me in the multitude of your mercies. Hide not your face from your servant; be swift to answer me, for I am in trouble.

Draw near to my soul and redeem me; deliver me because of my enemies.

Second Reading – Romans 6.1b – 11

What then are we to say? Should we continue in sin in order that grace may abound? By no means! How can we who died to sin go on living in it? Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptised into his death? Therefore we have been buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life.

For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, and we might no longer be enslaved to sin. For whoever has died is freed from sin. But if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. The death he died, he died to sin, once for all; but the life he lives, he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

Gospel reading - Matthew 10. 24-39

'A disciple is not above the teacher, nor a slave above the master: it is enough for the disciple to be like the teacher, and the slave like the master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household!

'So have no fear of them; for nothing is covered up that will not be uncovered, and nothing secret that will not become known. What I say you in the dark, tell in the light; and what you hear whispered, proclaim from the housetops. Do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul, rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell.

Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground unperceived by your Father. And even the hairs of your head are all counted. So do not be afraid; you are of more value than many sparrows.

'Everyone therefore who acknowledges me before others, I also will acknowledge before my Father in heaven; but whoever denies me before others, I also will deny before my Father in heaven.

'Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace, but a sword. For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; and one's foes will be members of one's own household'.

Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever does not take up the cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Those who find their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it'.

Post Communion Prayer

O God, whose beauty is beyond our imagining and whose power we cannot comprehend: show us your glory as far as we can grasp it, and shield us from knowing more than we can bear until we may look upon you without fear; through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen

Friends Coffee Morning – Wednesday 24 June 10 – 11.30

in the Cathedral Chapter House. Everybody Welcome

The Chapter House Revival

Interviews have now taken place for the two team leaders for the Chapter House, and offers are being made in the coming days. We're still on course for the Chapter House to open this summer, with furniture delivery expected within the next four weeks. The launch date is yet to be set. The Chapter House will offer a café space for 70, alongside a small shop area and exhibition displays. The work is in progress with improvements currently being made to the counter area, decoration and glazing. We're excited to welcome you again! If you would like to contribute towards the cost of this exciting and much-anticipated project, the easiest way to do so is by scanning the QR code below

Parking

We are grateful for the significant and constructive feedback that has been received, which is now beginning to slow down. This will be collated over the coming weeks, and further information will be shared once that is complete to seek a solution which meets the needs of the cathedral and all who play a part in its life and ministry.

Recruitment for the Substantive Dean

By the end of this week, the panel will have been set for the recruitment of the Dean, and the recruitment pack will begin to be finalised by the AAV Office. The interviews will take place in October

Truro Cathedral Heritage Talks

You might not have heard about these!!! Over the past few months, many folk have been contacting Truro Cathedral about their family's connection with this building, its worship and music. It's really exciting that a group of volunteers are organising monthly history and heritage talks, as part of the build up to Truro Cathedral's 150th anniversary celebrations in 2030.

We are hoping for lots of interest and participation with the talks from people with family recollections of the cathedral. Please click the link to find out more, and feel free to share it with anyone else you know who might be interested. The talks will be ticketed and on a wide range of topics, with refreshments and convivial conversation too. Please pass this message to anyone who you may think might be interested.

Truro Cathedral Heritage Talks – sign up for information

Did you know? The Bible Study group meets every Thursday morning at 10.00 am. in the Old Cathedral School. All welcome

Volunteer Recruitment

We have various volunteers we are recruiting for so please do contact Susie if you or someone you know may be interested. Roles currently available include Hospitality & Retail Volunteer (to help with the Chapter House when it reopens), Finance Record Conversion Volunteer, Livestream Operator along with positions on the Health & Safety Committee, Finance Committee and Audit & Risk Committee. Email volunteering@trurocathedral.org.uk for more details or to apply.

Congratulations!

To our amazing musicians, James, Andrew and Alfie who completed the Rame Head half marathon on last Saturday, raising sponsorship in excess of £8,000 for Truro Cathedral music. Fantastic result!!
