Worship in Truro Cathedral today

Evensong today: The Cathedral Choir is performing in concert in Penzance and we are extremely grateful to members of The St Mary's Singers, The Truro Chamber Choir, Alfie Beston and Richard Osmond for enabling us to continue sung worship this afternoon. Our particular thanks go to the singers for coming at short notice - please come and support the choir for a beautiful service of Choral Evensong at 4pm.

08:00	BCP Holy Communion	The Reverend Andrew Yates
10:00	Choral Eucharist	President The Interim Dean
		Preacher The Interim Dean
16:00	Choral Evensong	Preacher Revd Joanna Abecassis

10.00am Hymns for this morning

- 295 Let all mortal flesh keep silence
- 477 Ye know the Lord is gracious

Music for the 10am Eucharist

Introit Miserere nostri	Tallis
Cantus Missae	Rheinberger
Motet Ave verum corpus	Byrd
Voluntary Ricercare a 6 (Musical Offering BWV 1079)	Bach

Collect: O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: increase and multiply upon us your mercy; that with you as our ruler and guide we may so pass through things temporal that we lose not our hold of things eternal; grant this, heavenly Father, for our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

First Reading – Jeremiah 28. 5-9

Then the prophet Jeremiah spoke to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests and all the people who were standing in the house of the Lord; and the prophet Jeremiah said, 'Amen! May the Lord do so; may the Lord fulfil the words that you have prophesied, and bring back to this place from Babylon the vessels of the house of the Lord, and all the exiles.'

But listen now to this word that I speak in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people. The prophets who preceded you and me from ancient times prophesied war, famine, and pestilence against many countries and great kingdoms. As for the prophet who prophesies peace, when the word of that prophet comes true, then it will be known that the Lord has truly sent the prophet’.

Psalm 89

Andrew Moore

Response

cf. v. 1 My song shall pro-claim your stead-fast love, O Lord.

My song shall be always of the Loving-kindness of the Lord:
with my mouth will I proclaim your faithfulness
throughout all generations.
I will declare that your love is Established for ever;
You have set your faithfulness
As firm as the heavens.

Happy are the people
Who know the shout of triumph:
They walk, O Lord, in the light of your countenance.
In your name they rejoice all the day long
And are exalted in your righteousness.
For you are the glory of their strength,
And in your favour you lift up our heads.
Truly the Lord is our shield;
The Holy One of Israel is our king.

Second Reading – Romans 6.12-end

Therefore, do not let sin exercise dominion in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions. No longer present your members to sin as instruments of wickedness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and present your members to God as instruments of righteousness.

For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace. What then? Should we sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness?

But thanks be to God that you, having once been slaves of sin, have become obedient from the heart to the form of teaching to which you were entrusted, and that you, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to greater and greater iniquity, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness for sanctification. When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness.

So what advantage did you then get from the things of which you now are ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been freed from sin and enslaved to God, the advantage you get is sanctification. The end is eternal life.

For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Gospel reading - Matthew 10. 40-end

Whoever welcomes you welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me.

Whoever welcomes a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet's reward; and whoever welcomes a righteous person in the name of a righteous person will receive the reward of the righteous;

and whoever gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple-truly I tell you, none of these will lose their reward.

Post Communion Prayer

Eternal God,
comfort of the afflicted and healer of the broken,
you have fed us at the table of life and hope:
teach us the ways of gentleness and peace,
that all the world may acknowledge the kingdom of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

The Friends of Truro Cathedral

Strawberry Sparkle

Wednesday 1 July - 2.30pm in the Cathedral Chapter House.

Join the Friends to celebrate summer with strawberries and cream, sparkling wine and elderflower, scones and delicious cakes and live music provided by the Cathedral music department.

Tickets at £15 can be purchased from the Friends table after the Sunday morning Eucharist, by phoning 01872 274986 and listening to the message or by emailing: events@friendsoftrurocathedral.org.uk

The Chapter House Revival

Our two team leaders have now accepted roles in the Chapter House. Jess and Carolyn will join us in July. We're still on course for the Chapter House to open this summer. Delivery dates for furniture have now been received. The launch date is yet to be set. The Chapter House will offer a café space for 70, alongside a small shop area and exhibition displays. The work is in progress with improvements currently being made to the counter area and ventilation. We're excited to welcome you again! If you would like to contribute towards the cost of this exciting and much-anticipated project, the easiest way to do so is by scanning the QR code below

Truro Volunteers Day

Truro Volunteers Day returns to Lemon Quay this Sunday 28th June, 1pm – 5pm. The event will showcase local volunteering opportunities for anyone interested in giving their time to groups that need support. Susie Merelie will be looking after the cathedral stand, which is number seven and will be hoping to recruit new volunteers.

Parking

We are grateful for the significant and constructive feedback that has been received, which is now beginning to slow down. This will be collated over the coming weeks, and further information will be shared once that is complete to seek a solution which meets the needs of the cathedral and all who play a part in its life and ministry.

Chapter recruitment drive to launch next week

Do you know someone with relevant skills and experience who would like to support and encourage the cathedral by serving a three-year term on the cathedral's Chapter (board of trustees)?

Up to three people are needed, to start at the turn of the year. The deadline for applications is not until September, but please can you help to publicise the recruitment pack when it comes out on the website next week? Thank you.

Congratulations!

To our amazing musicians, James, Andrew and Alfie who completed the Rame Head half marathon on last Saturday, raising sponsorship in excess of £8,000 for Truro Cathedral music. Fantastic result!!

Even better news - there is still time to contribute

*Please send or deliver your donations to the Cathedral Office, marked 'Marathon'.
Thank you for your continued support.*

Sunday 5 July is the last Sunday of the choir year before their summer break.

There will be a formal valediction for them at Evensong at 4 pm. I am sure we will all want to wish them well for whatever the future holds for those that are leaving us, and also a fun filled summer break for those returning.
