

Sunday 7 June 2026
1st Sunday after Trinity

Truro
Cathedral
sacred space, common ground

Worship in Truro Cathedral today

08:00	BCP Holy Communion	The Reverend Andrew Yates
10:00	Choral Eucharist	President The Archdeacon of Cornwall Preacher The Archdeacon of Cornwall
16:00	Choral Evensong	Preacher Martin Adams

10.00am Hymns for this morning

378 Immortal Love for ever full

338 At the name of Jesus

The kingdom of God is justice and joy – words on separate sheet

Music for the 10am Eucharist

Introit O taste and see
Williams

Vaughan

Missa Brevis

Ives

Motet Libera nos, salva nos

Sheppard

Voluntary Marche épiscopale

David Briggs

Collect: O God

The strength of all those who put their trust in you, mercifully accept our prayers and because through the weakness of our mortal nature we can do no good thing without you, grant us the help of your grace, that in the keeping of your commandments we may please you both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

First Reading – Genesis 12. 1-9

Now the Lord said to Abram, 'Go from your country and your kindred and your father's house to the land that I will show you. I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you, and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and the one who curses you I will curse; and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed.'

So Abram went, as the Lord had told him; and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran. Abram took his wife Sara and his brother's son Lot, and all the possessions that they had is void. For the law brings wrath; but where there is no law, neither is there violation.

For this reason it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his descendants, not only to the adherents of the law but also to those who share the faith of Abraham (for he is the father of all of us, as it is written, 'I have made you the father of many nations')—in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist. Hoping against hope, he believed that he would become 'the father of many nations', according to what was said, 'So numerous shall your descendants be.' He did not weaken in faith when he considered his own body, which was already as good as dead (for he was about a hundred years old), or when he considered the barrenness of Sarah's womb. No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, being fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised. Therefore his faith 'was reckoned to him as righteousness.' Now the words, 'it was reckoned to him', were written not for his sake alone, but for ours also. It will be reckoned to us who believe in him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, who was handed over to death for our trespasses and was raised for our justification.

Gospel reading - Matthew 9. 9-13, 18-26

As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax booth; and he said to him, 'Follow me.' And he got up and followed him. And as he sat at dinner in the house, many tax-collectors and sinners came and were sitting with him and his disciples. When the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, 'Why does your teacher eat with tax-collectors and sinners?' But when he heard this, he said, 'Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. Go and learn what this means, "I desire mercy, not sacrifice." For I have come to call not the righteous but sinners.'

While he was saying these things to them, suddenly a leader of the synagogue came in and knelt before him, saying, 'My daughter has just died; but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live.' And Jesus got up and followed him, with his disciples. Then suddenly a woman who had been suffering from haemorrhages for twelve years came up behind him and touched the fringe of his cloak, for she said to herself, 'If I only touch his cloak, I will be made well.' Jesus turned, and seeing her he said, 'Take heart, daughter; your faith has made you well.' And instantly the woman was made well. When Jesus came to the leader's house and saw the flute-players and the crowd making a commotion, he said, 'Go away; for the girl is not dead but sleeping.' And they laughed at him. But when the crowd had been put outside, he went in and took her by the hand, and the girl got up. And the report of this spread throughout that district.

Post Communion Prayer

Eternal Father,

We thank you for nourishing us with these heavenly gifts:

May our communion strengthen us in faith,

build us up in hope, and make us grow in love;

for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

Next Sunday, Second after Trinity

08:00 BCP Holy Communion

The Revd. Andrew Yates

10:00 Choral Eucharist

President

Canon Sue Wallace

Preacher

The Revd. Keiren Marwood

16:00 Choral Evensong

Preacher

Bishop James Treasure

for Mayor's Sunday

This week we are praying for: Fiona Davie, Elliot Wills, Gill Wills, Jill Staplehurst, Keith Halstead, Christine Lidgley, Duncan Whitehouse, Marc Gregory.

RIP: Katharine Shephard

The Friends of Truro Cathedral

Wednesday 10 June - Friends Coffee Morning - 10-11.30 in the Cathedral Chapter House. There will be a raffle and home-made cakes on sale.

All invited to a morning of fundraising, friendship and fellowship

This Week

Monday 8 June	9.00 Holy Communion 9.30 Morning Prayer 17.30 Choral Evensong
Tuesday 9 June	9.00 Holy Communion 9.30 Morning Prayer 17.30 Choral Evensong
Wednesday 10 June	9.00 Holy Communion 9.30 Morning Prayer 17.30 Choral Evensong

Thursday 11 June Barnabas the Apostle	9.00 Holy Communion 9.30 Morning Prayer 12.10 Christian Meditation 13.10 Organ Recital: Ben Scott 17.30 Festal Evensong
Friday 12 June	9.00 Holy Communion 9.30 Morning Prayer 11.00 BCP Holy Communion 17.30 Choral Evensong
Saturday 13 June	9.00 Holy Communion 9.30 Morning Prayer 16.00 Evening Prayer

Cheer them on and Support Truro Cathedral Music!

On Saturday, 13th of June, James, Andrew and Alfie, are putting on their running shoes to tackle the Rame Head Half Marathon, all in aid of Truro Cathedral's music programme. Music and worship are at the heart of the cathedral's life and they are raising funds to help sustain and grow the cathedral's music, including:

- Supporting the choir and young singers
- Maintaining and developing musical programmes
- Ensuring the tradition of outstanding sacred music continues for future generations.

It would be amazing if you are able to support them but, if not, sharing this fundraiser would help just as much. Thank you.

Donations can be made via their GoFundMe page: <https://gofund.me/1bf079a92>

Chapter House Café Gathers Momentum

Somewhere to have coffee and cake, or lunch and a chat, is one of the things that a lot of people have missed over the past couple of years. A project is now underway to re-open the Chapter House as a café, with a small shop area and space for exhibitions or activities.

It will be quite costly – in the region of £50,000 - to make the Chapter House hospitable again, because it needs repairs, redecoration, furniture and equipment, and there are running costs to cover too. If you would like to contribute towards bringing it back to life, please collect a specially-labelled Gift Aid envelope from the coffee table or Welcome desk, or donate via the QR code below.

Truro Cathedral

Charity Number: 1207821

Cornwall my Home :

Truro Cathedral Choir in Concert – Saturday 20 June at 7 pm.

Celebrate the power of choral music in a programme that journeys from classics such as Zadock the Priest to the spirit of Cornish song, brought to life by choir and violin.

Tickets on sale at www.trurocathedral.org.uk

Good News - Free Evensong Parking!

Cornwall Council has now re-introduced free parking after 4pm at Edward Street car park (near the Law Courts), and Moresk (near the Pydar Development area), perfect for a midweek Evensong. Edward Street is just five minutes away on foot and Moresk is 7 minutes walk. The free parking lasts until 9am the following morning so there is no need to clock-watch or worry about over-staying.

Did you know? The Bible Study group meets every Thursday morning at 10.00 am. in the Old Cathedral School. All welcome

Christian Aid

Thanks to all who gave donations during Christian Aid Week, whether online or in cash. The cash collection totalled £309.12, of which £170 was gift-aided. Several of us also supported the CA coffee morning organised by Sue Pettit, which raised £990! David Ivall, Cathedral CA Rep'.

A message from Susie Merelie – Volunteer Manager

Today marks the end of National Volunteers' Week and I would like to send my heartfelt thanks and appreciation to all our cathedral volunteers for all they do.

*“We make a living from what we do, but we make a life by what we give” –
Winston Churchill*

The time our volunteers give is a crucial contribution to the greater good of the cathedral and is greatly appreciated, especially as they all have very busy and full lives. Their time and energy is invaluable and their support makes such a difference.

Thank you to all those who have featured on our website and social media platforms throughout the week as part of the Volunteer Week celebrations and to those who attended Evensong on Friday, where prayers were said for the volunteers.

For those considering volunteering or know someone who would like to offer some time to the cathedral as a volunteer, please email volunteering@trurocathedral.org.uk

Thank you!

Truro Cathedral Charity Number: 1207821

Truro
Cathedral
sacred space, common ground