Collect

God, who as at this time taught the hearts of your faithful people by sending them the light of your Holy Spirit: grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgement in all things and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort; through the merits of Christ Jesus our Saviour, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

First Reading: Acts 2: 1-21: When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability. Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, 'Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God’s deeds of power.’ All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, ‘What does this mean?’ But others sneered and said, ‘They are filled with new wine.’ But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them: ‘Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o’clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: “In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord’s great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.”

Psalm 104

Send forth your Spirit, O Lord, and re - new the face of the earth.

Praise the Lord O my soul, O Lord God, your glory is great: How manifold are your works, In wisdom you have made them all.

Response

All creatures look to you, To give them food to eat: When you open your hand they are filled with good, When you hide your face,
they pine away.

Response

When you take away their breath, they die,
And return to the earth whence they came:
When you send forth your spirit, all things spring to life, And the face of the earth is renewed.

Response

The glory of the Lord shall never cease, The Lord shall rejoice in all his works: I will sing to the Lord as long as I live, I will praise my God while my breath remains.

Response

Second reading: Romans 8: 14-17: ‘For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, ‘Abba! Father!’ it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ—if, in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

Gospel Reading: John 14: 8-27: Philip said to him, ‘Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied.’ Jesus said to him, ‘Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, “Show us the Father”? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves. Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it. 'If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you for ever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you. 'I have said these things to you while I am still with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid.

Post Communion Prayer

Faithful God, who fulfilled the promises of Easter by sending us your Holy Spirit and opening to every race and nation the way of life eternal: open our lips by your Spirit, that every tongue may tell of your glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

The Christian Aid Week collections at the cathedral this year raised £344.45 (most of which was gift-aided). The Truro CA coffee morning raised an impressive £1,009. Many thanks to all who contributed to the collections, attended the coffee morning or donated online to support Christian Aid's work in Guatemala, South Sudan and twenty other countries around the world.

Wednesday 11 June - Friends Coffee Morning in the Chapter House of the Cathedral. 10-11:30. All welcome to join us for a morning of friendship.

Bishop David's Walk of Prayer

Bishop David is the National Lead for Thy Kingdom Come and following his Installation and for the next hundred days he will be walking in various parts of the diocese, meeting and praying with all who can join him. More details can be found at www.trurodiocese.org.uk/2025/05/join-bishop-david-to-walk-pray-for-tkc/

From Canon Sue... On the afternoon of the 13th July Dr Andrew Lumsden will be coming to conduct a Come and Sing Evensong event in Truro Cathedral, including Byrd responses, canticles by Brewer and Balfour Gardiner's Evening hymn. Rehearsal at 2.30, service at 4pm. All are welcome to join the large choir for this event, and teaching tracks will be provided in advance so that everyone can learn their parts at home in their own time. Please register your interest at suewallace@trurocathedral.org.uk so that we can ensure we have sufficient music for everyone.

New Chapter Members

We are delighted to announce that the recruitment process for new Chapter members has now been completed, and that five new members will be joining the Chapter to serve as trustees: Sarah McLachlan, Trelawny Williams, Tim Pethybridge, Deborah Rowland and Patrick Newberry. Many people will already know Sarah as a longstanding volunteer and chorister parent, and Patrick as a member of the Fabric Advisory Committee. They will all become non-executive members of the Chapter, serving alongside existing members Jeff James, Robert Perry, Daphne Skinnard, Helen Davies and the residentiary clergy.

Sarah, Trelawny, Deborah and Patrick will be installed as lay canons of the cathedral this afternoon at Choral Evensong, and Tim will be installed at a later date. You are warmly invited to come to the service to support them as they enter this new role, and they will also be popping briefly into the Friends Coffee Morning this Wednesday 11th June, if you would like to meet them. There will be many other opportunities to get to know them over the coming months, and we thank them for offering their time and talents in this important role. Thanks are also due to everyone who has helped with the recruitment, and particularly members of the cathedral's Interim Nominations Committee.

Please take this away with you
