They have exceptional skill with flowers and an experienced eye for colour and design working to a large scale.	1 session 2¼ hour session per week on a Saturday morning 8.15am – 10.30am (a week off every 6 weeks)
Lay Assistants	The Guild of Lay Assistants is as old as the Cathedral itself. It provides a vital service during acts of worship and is the interface between the Cathedral and those attending services. Members of the Guild are recruited by the Guild Warden in consultation with Cathedral Chapter.	Varies depending on availability
Sewing Guild	The Cathedral's Sewing Guild plays a very important part in conserving its vestments. They are skilled in sewing and embroidery.	1 morning session a week on a Tuesday
Pastoral Team	Our Pastoral team is trained to carry out a range of pastoral support within the community of the Cathedral congregation. This important work can involve bereavement support, home visits, transporting to appointments and taking communion to those who are unable to come to the Cathedral.	Commitment can vary depending on the role and the individual's availability

Commercial & Operations Volunteer Teams

Shop team	Our shop volunteers play a vital role in the day to day running of the Cathedral shop. They support our staff during busy times and over quieter periods assist with restocking, stock counting and pricing goods. They are friendly with customers and have good service skills.	1 half day per week
Hospitality/ Catering	There are lots of catering events through the year and volunteers join our catering team giving support with setting up, clearing away, serving refreshments and dealing with the public.	Varies, as and when required.
Mail shot team	The Cathedral send mailings out promoting activities and events. We have a team of volunteers who get together three times a year and fill envelopes for posting. (This usually involves tea and cake to keep everyone going!)	2 hours three times a year
Events Team	The Cathedral runs all sorts of events during the year and our Events Stewards help with lots of tasks on the day from moving chairs, to taking tickets and welcoming guests. They are often in a 'front of house' position, are smart, organised and like working as part of a team.	Varies, as and when required, mostly evenings
Organ Recital Team	The Cathedral runs regular organ recitals from March to October. This team are often front of house welcome visitors, checking tickets and seating while generally helping the Events Manager and the Vergers to ensure things run smoothly.	1-2 hour commitment each recital, once a week or when available lunch-time or evenings
